

Zoo Lights at the Reid Park Zoo

It's the most wonderful time of the year at ZooLights: Holiday Magic, presented by Tucson Electric Power will be back at Reid Park Zoo this year throughout December! Sip hot chocolate as you stroll through the twinkling lights of Tucson's favorite holiday tradition. Thousands of glittering lights illuminate the beautiful Zoo grounds with sounds of the season flowing throughout the Zoo. www.reidparkzoo.org

Old Tucson

Experience holidays the Old West Way at Old Tucson during Yuletide! Bring the whole family to enjoy fun holiday-themed shows like "A Yuletide Christmas Carol," old-fashioned craft-making in Town Hall, and the nightly Tree Lighting Ceremony. In 1882, electricity is the new wave of the future. On the East Coast, gas lights are being replaced for safer electric lamps. In Tucson, however, electricity is still an experiment. But a new company is bringing electricity to Tucson, and this momentous occasion will be celebrated in Town Square where the main Christmas Tree will be lit with electrical power for the first-time nightly, Thursdays through Sundays at 6:10 p.m. Take a ride on the Christmas Fantasy Train and enjoy traditional snacks and beverages while listening to Yuletide Carolers. In the Town Hall, children can write a letter for Santa and place it directly into the mailbox in town. If you've been naughty you may want to steer clear of the Krampus Koal Mine the Krampus is never willing to let Santa have all the fun. If you've been nice, Santa and his elves are waiting to greet you in Christmas Cove! Watch the beautiful Sonoran sunset in the desert, take a walk lit by luminaries at the Mission, and end the night with a hayride.
